MCGILL TEAM IN FINE SHAPE FOR HARD GAME WITH QUEENS IN KINGSTON THIS AFTERNOON

Jimmy Lee will be Out of the Game this Afternoon but All the Rest are in Good Condition and Ready to Play the Game of their Lives Against the Kingstonians

CONTEST SHOULD BE CLOSE AND EXCITING

The eyes of all those interested in intercollegiate football will be focused on Kingston today. McGill plays her last league game this afternoon against Queen's and if she wins is sure of either being tied with Varsity for the championship or of winning outright. Queen's can always be counted upon to play a hard game on their own grounds and as this is the first senior intercollegiate fixture in Kingston this year we have no means of telling what the Red, White and Blue are like on their own campus this season.

doubtful if ever before in the history of Canadian football a team and a Coach have ever worked harder than the McGill Fourteen and Shaughnessy. They have practiced faithfully and hard and so far the results have been entirely satisfactory. There has never been a Canadian team so well drilled as the present McGill aggregation and on form they should go clear through the rest of the season without a defeat. You can take any department of the game at all and the same thing applies to it. Take the converts for example and we find

COACH SHAUGHNESSY

Last Saturday Queen's put up a very determined fight against Varsity in Toronto and were only beaten by six points which, after all, is not very much in football. It takes a strong team to keep Varsity from running up a large score when they are playing at home. The Queen's backs played a very strong game and by their superb catching and running time and again saved what otherwise would have been a sure score. There is no doubt that the weak points of the Queen's team are their line plays and their following down under kicks. Last Saturday they were unable to make a yard by their line plays and when Hazlett kicked Slater would be the only man under the ball at all.

Shaughnessy is sending his men in to today's game in perfect shape, and McGill has good reason to be proud of the athletes who will today defend her laurels on the gridiron. It is to be sincerely hoped that by this evening she will have still more reason to be proud of them. It is very that Billington has been practicing every day for fifteen minutes or more just at this particular part of the game. The same is true of his drop kicking. For two weeks the backs have been faithfully practicing catching and returning kicks and also the end runs.

Only a very light signal practice was indulged in yesterday afternoon. Nearly all the men were out and all the plays were run through in a very snappy manner. Jimmy Lee was out but not in uniform and will hardly be in the game to-day, though he will probably get into a uniform and enter the game as he is needed. The players are confident of winning, but expect to have to play their best to do so. The team will probably line up as follows:

Backs--Billington, Draper, Paisley, Quarters--McEwen, Scrimmage--Reid, Montgomery, Crankshanks, Wings--Matheson, Timmins, Watrous, Bignall, Lewis and Laing, Flying Wing--Woolhutt.

Filled Just As Ordered

There is no doubt in your mind when we fill your prescriptions for they are just as your doctor ordered. If in his opinion it is necessary for you to have some rare imported chemical or drug, that is expensive, we have it and we give it to you. Of course you pay in accordance. Our prices are not high, but remember this that the price we charge is regulated solely by the medicine your doctor orders. We make no more on a 25c prescription than on a 75c prescription, so when a prescription costs you more than 25 cents you can depend on it that there are . . . unusual drugs or chemicals contained therein . . .

The first regular meeting of the Freshman Class was held at eleven o'clock, Oct. 30th, 1912, in Room 12. The business transacted was chiefly financial, the Undergraduation fees being asked for as well as small sums for other purposes. It was suggested that the Freshmen should follow the good example of the 30 honors in having a reserve fund to do away with the necessity of constant small collections, this was unanimously agreed upon and 50c was the sum decided upon to be contributed by each person.

Nominations were then held to elect a representative to the 'Societ Francise'. Miss Antonia Seiden was unanimously elected.

The meeting then adjourned.

FRESHMAN DEBATE AT MEETING OF THE LIT

Meeting Decided that an Arts Course is a Better Business Training Than a Science Course

At a poorly attended meeting of the "Lit." yesterday evening there was a debate on "That an Arts course is better training for a business career than a Science course." The affirmative was upheld by Macmillan and Lighthall, and the negative by Lafen and Pick.

The subject was fairly well thrashed out, and after the debate there was a general discussion, which was very interesting. Mr. Macnaughton was in the chair, but had to leave before the meeting was over. Mr. Farthing then took his place.

The most important points made by the affirmative were that a science course was purely technical, and the course tended to turn out graduates who had a very narrow outlook on business. The question of the great number of Arts graduates who were in high positions was also touched upon.

The negative side naturally refuted the above arguments, but, not as it turned out, to the satisfaction of those present. They touched upon the practical work done in the summer months when the students came into direct contact with the workers, and laborers. They also said that this gave a Science student a greater insight into the character of men than the Arts course did.

After the debate there was a general discussion in which many opinions were brought up. Some of the speakers seemed to think, however, that the wording of the subject was not very good. Nevertheless they did not give a better wording.

After the discussion Mr. Farthing explained the coming Inter-Collegiate debates. The try-outs are to take place in the next four weeks. The subject for next Friday's debate will likely be on the present situation in the Old Country as regards Home Rule.

A vote was taken on the debate. The affirmative won.

THINK THIS OVER!

We publish this morning a letter from Mr. A. K. Hugesson, the President of the Union, which contains the financial statement of the Club for the past year.

It will undoubtedly be a surprise to many of our readers when they find that the Union deficit was over four thousand dollars during the last session. This however is a fact which we must face and in view of this the reason for the tax of two and a half cents on each meal becomes obvious. It may be, as our correspondent in yesterday's paper claims, that this charge discriminates in favour of the men who take their meals in the Grill Room; the tax in question may perhaps not be the most logical method of bringing an increased revenue into the Union Exchequer, nevertheless, it is an evidence that the executive realized the critical situation in which the finances of the institution were placed and took such steps as they could to alleviate the burden under which the club labours.

The matter of the charge upon the meals in the Dining Room is not the one most deserving of criticism. There are undoubtedly certain defects in the management of the Union as in any other institution of a similar nature, these must, to a certain extent be looked for and allowances should be made for the difficulties which face the executive.

The point, however, which is deserving of criticism and comment, is the attitude of the undergraduates as a whole towards the club and the various enterprises carried on within its walls. It was expected, that, with the universal fee a very much larger number of students would take advantage of the Union and its many conveniences. This was largely the idea of including the Union, in the fee, as the direct financial return from the membership dues will not be much greater than in former years. The results have not justified expectations. Both the caterer and the barber at present in the Union claim that unless their patronage increases they will have to discontinue their respective businesses. This is not as it should be. Surely the students of this University should take a proper pride in their splendid Club, a Club which excites the admiration of every visitor to the College. They should do their best to help out the Union in every way in their power and in no way can they do this better than by patronizing the facilities provided for their use by the Committee in charge of the building.

We hope that the future will shortly see a change for the better in the attitude of the students in regard to this matter and that the Union will become what it is intended to be, the Club and meeting place of all the undergraduates of this University.

TO AN UNKNOWN PHOTOGRAPH.

Dear little dainty, dark-eyed maiden,
Hanging upon my study wall
That with beauty is not o'erladen

Why are you hanging there at all?
I don't know you; you never knew me,
Perhaps we shall ne'er each other see;

Why do you stand then looking through me?

Why do I sit and gaze at thee?

What are you like? Just two big brown eyes.

Two little ears, and one small nose;
Perhaps a dimple that fits like sunrise,

Over an April morn's repose.

Two little lips like dewy roses,
Opening a trifle just to show
The pealy drops that each encloses,
Shining so sweetly row on row.

One little chin, some dusky tresses
Crowning a forehead smooth and fair.

Dear little girl! my one distress is,
I don't know you,—and you don't care.

Yesterday's practice saw things running smoothly again. All the men showed themselves to be in fine form
and are eager for to-day's battle.
With a win to our credit the whole College will probably take in the trip to Ottawa for the play-off with Varsity and then again there will be another trip for the Dominion Championship with the Ottawa City team.
We've got to have that Dominion
Championship this year.

On Thursday Shaughnessy had Billington practicing drop kicking. The ones Billy misses are few and far between. A drop goal from the forty-five-yard line will be a common occurrence from now on. He also showed his ability at converting goals.
He put over four in succession from 35-yard out and from the most difficult angle possible. Billy's kicks should be good for about 15 points
to-day.

With a dry ball Hazlett of Queen's is the next best kicker in the Union.
He demonstrated this in Ottawa in the opening game of the season but easily out-kicked the much-tooted Cornellier.

Fisher has been putting up good ball in practice but has yet not had a chance to show what he could do in a senior game. He and Woodliff are two very useful spares for the back division.

Many Laval students have signified their intention of accompanying the McGill supporters up to Kingston and helping them cheer the red and white team on to victory. This is the second time this year that Laval have shown their friendly feeling for our Alma Mater. They should see a most excellent game of football and they may feel assured that they will be heartily welcomed.

CORRESPONDENCE

Montreal, November 1.
Editor of McGill Daily.

Dear Sir:

In your issue of to-day
there appears a letter from a gentleman who signs himself "Interested."
He desires to know why the Union is charging 1 1/2 cents on meals served in the Dining Room, and thus putting what he terms as "unfair tax"
upon those members who patronize
it. I do not think it should be looked upon in that light. It is, to my mind, an eminently fair way of making the caterer pay rent for the use of the room. He charges 25 cents a meal. We charge him 1 1/2 cents for every student who takes a meal in that room. Thus the rent he pays for the room varies automatically in a scale with the patronage he obtains.

Of course, if the Union were a wealthy institution, the executive would be only too pleased to remove this rental charge, and arrange with the caterer for a corresponding reduction in the prices of meals to the members. But the necessity, to the Union, of obtaining every possible
source of revenue, is I think clearly shown by the Annual Statement for the year 1911-12, which I will take the liberty of asking you to append
to this letter.

I am, sir,

Yours very truly,

A. K. Hugesen,
President of Union

ONE LINE PLUNGER

WHO IS THIS?
QUEEN'S KNOW.
SO DO VARSITY.

Jimmy Lee's leg is not in very good shape and he may be unable to get into the game to-morrow afternoon. If all goes well, however, he will be able to help the red and white on to victory in harder games than the one in Kingston. Our Captain took no small part in defeating Varsity two weeks ago and if the Toron-tians and McGill both defeat Queen's he will have another chance to lead his team.

The Bunsen Burners have organized in earnest for the coming hockey season. With brilliant executive ability at the head of things and fast famous material to pick from the team this year should be a hummer.
All of the members are enthusiastic and Gym practices will shortly be started in preparation for a hard season's work.

The intermediates will try to take another fall out of Queen's seconds to-morrow. On the form shown during the last two weeks, Hob. Gilmour's fourteen should be able to do this.

It is not necessary to repeat our praises of George Laing. He is ac-knowledgeed by all great football authorities to be the peer of all outside wings in Canada to-day.

In the event of Jimmy Lee being unable to play or if he is forced to retire, McEwen will probably act as captain. Sink is there with the head and will ably fill Jimmy's shoes.
This statement is slightly Irish, but who cares.

CONSERVATORIUM

CONCERT

An important item on the program in the Conservatorium Concert on Thursday night which was omitted through lack of space but deserves special mention was the dialogue for M'zzo Soprano and Baritone sung by Miss E. Goldstein (student) and Mr. Rowe. The words were by Mr. Sargant and have been lately set to music by Dr. Perrin who accompanied at the pianoforte. This achievement in musical composition by the Director well signifies the completeness of the Conservatorium staff.

Miss Goldstein proved equal to the singing of her part with Mr. Rowe.

JUNIOR DANCE

If everything turns out as well as is expected, this year's Junior Dance will certainly be the best that has ever taken place. The Committee who have been hard at work lately, report that everything is turning out very favorably but that there is still a lot of work to be done before all will be ready. The Junior Dance which is the first dance of the season has always proved to be one of the biggest social events in the college season. This year it is going to be held on the 22nd of this month.

As the Junior Dance has always been very popular, it has been found necessary in former years to restrict the number of tickets. This year it has been decided to follow the example of former years and limit the number to 150 couples. This should make the dance most enjoyable because that number is just about as many as can be accommodated without crowding in the Union Hall. It has been rumoured that several entirely new ideas are to be tried this year, but so far no reliable information has been obtained.

THINGS THEATRICAL

AGNES SCOTT & CO., IN THE CLEVER ONE ACT PLAY, ORPHEUM

"DRIFTING" A STAR NUMBER AT ORPHEUM NEXT WEEK

Agnes Scott and Henry Keene will be the head line attraction at the Orpheum for the coming week, in a one act play entitled "Drifting," said to be a dainty skit out of the ordinary run of playlets; Felix Adler, with a budget of up-to-date stories and parodies will entertain; Hart's Six Steppers, are classed as Vaudeville's best dancing number, and this act itself has been headlining many of the big Vaudeville bills all over the Keith Circuit; Darrell and Conway will present their laughable skit, entitled "Behind the Scenes," one of those playlets giving a touch of life on the stage behind the curtain; Smythe and Hartman in a comedy singing and talking skit, will also be seen; Romulo and Delane, a startling Acrobatic novelty, and other high class attractions will appear.

"THE MERRY WIDOW" WILL REVISIT CITY NEXT WEEK

The popularity of "The Merry Widow" has not proved so short-lived as many predicted. Henry W. Savage is to present a new version of it next week at the Princess. The famous "Merry Widow Waltz" will remain unchanged, but the Merry Widow hat will be replaced by another wonderful Parisian creation.

Franz Lehar's popular operetta throws a new light on the Balkan War, or rather it emphasises the poverty and pluck of Montenegro and its people in a striking way. Crown Prince Danilo of Montenegro, who is now at the front with the troops, is said to be the original of the prince in the operetta who saves his country by finally marrying Souia and gaining possession of her millions.

The cast will be practically the same as the original one, and the name of Henry W. Savage is a sufficient guarantee of sumptuous staging and efficient execution.

ABORN OPERA CO'S VISIT

The simple, yet striking melodies that give special character to "The Bohemian Girl" are still prime favorite with lovers of real music, and the approaching visit of the Aborn Opera Co. to the Princess is anticipated with pleasure. The scenic outfit is unusually rich, and a regular menagerie is introduced on the stage. The association of performing animals with a production of "The Bohemian Girl" seems on the face of it incongruous, yet those who have seen this latest revival declare it to be complete and consonant with good taste.

FIFTH YEAR MEDICINE

At a meeting of the Fifth Year in Medicine held Thursday, arrangements were made for having the class photographs taken. These individual photos are to be arranged in a group, similar to those seen hanging in the Common Room of the Medical Building, and the whole photographed. The result to be reduced to a size necessary for insertion in the 1913 Annual. This is sure to be unique, and very acceptable to the men of the graduating class, who by obtaining a copy of the Annual may have individual pictures of all their classmates whom they have been with for the last five years. It was planned also to select two men from each of the three hospital groups who should prepare a debate, the subject to be "The efficiency of dividing the fifth year into trimesters." This is to be given before the Medical Society at some future date. This should be interesting, and will give the Students an opportunity for expressing their ideas of this measure.

NOT RISKING INTERFERENCE.

"Why do you insist on staying downtown to-night?" "I have reason to believe that my daughter is planning to elope with a young man who has nearly a million dollars in his own right."

ELIJAH

Lovers of music who did not attend Elijah at the Arena last night missed a rare opportunity of hearing sacred music admirably produced in dramatic form.

Last night's performance certainly dispelled any doubts which may have been held as to the advisability of dramatizing the great religious works.

There was not a single part of the opera in which the sacred tone of the piece was spoiled by the acting, and in many cases the dramatizing brought out and intensified the religious meaning. This was especially the case in the first act in the scene when the widows child was brought to life.

Though the singing and acting was fine in many cases, on the whole it was a little disappointing. The chorus especially seemed weak at first but towards the end they improved greatly. A good deal of this may have been due to the acoustic difficulties of the Arena, but it cannot be denied that the male voices in the chorus did not appear to be as good as they ought to have been.

Too much praise however cannot be given to Mme. Ester Adaberto, who has undoubtedly the best voice of the whole company, which is paying her a great compliment. The scene of restoring the Widow's child to life is the strangest scene of the whole opera. Mme. Adaberto as "The Widow," was simple, and charming, and brought repeated applause from the audience. Mr. Gwilym Miles as "Elijah" was at his best in this act and made an admirable finale to the scene.

The orchestra was excellent and deserves every praise for the way in which they assisted the voices. The music is of course well known to be one of the finest of Mendelssohn's productions.

The opera on the whole was most interesting from a biblical standpoint leaving the music out of it altogether.

Theologians, or in fact anybody, are surely losing a rare opportunity if they do not see the story of Elijah set off by excellent music and fairly good company.
